Where Healing and Opportunities Happen

Here's how your kindness and generosity are making a difference...

JUVENILE JAIL MINISTRY

Wright's House of Hope (WHOH) continues to minister at the Greenville County Juvenile Detention Facility (GCJDF) in Greenville, SC and the Department of Juvenile Justice (DJJ) in Columbia, SC.

Greenville County Juvenile Detention Facility

DJJ Columbia

As you can see in the pictures above, the ministry at DJJ continues to be fertile soil for planting the seeds of God's word and for relevant teaching. Our kids are very receptive to participate in our activities. They love reading Bible stories and sharing their hearts. For example, here's a letter written to Ms. Bev:

"Thank you for coming to GCJDC the other day you really helped me with a lot of my problem and you are a nice lady and thank you for coming and taking time out you day to come see me I pray for you a lot I hope you prayers word for me"

The teaching for that evening was about the prodigal son's brother and his struggles with feeling like he wasn't a part of the family. Most of our youth don't realize they have value, so we make sure we plant encouraging words every visit.

HOME MINISTRY

We continue to have supportive relationships with former foster youth.

We're very proud of one of our moms (photo to the right) who have been living independently for four years in an apartment with her two small children. She has qualified to purchase a home through Habitat for Humanity! We appreciate your generous donations of clothing, household supplies, and small appliances for our young moms.
